You could win $1,000

If you’re planning for college or already there, perhaps you could use some extra cash?

When you sign up to receive college tips and tools from Wells Fargo’s CollegeSTEPS® program, you’ll automatically be entered in the CollegeSTEPS sweepstakes for a chance to win $1,000.¹ Plus, you’ll get emails with information designed to help keep you on track with money management and college planning.

Here’s how it works

Sign up for the CollegeSTEPS program anytime before August 13, 2015. Sweepstakes winners are chosen quarterly through random drawings, giving you a chance to win $1,000. A total of 160 $1,000 prizes will be awarded (80 to high school students, 80 to college students) so sign up sooner rather than later. Once you sign up, you’re automatically entered in all drawings without having to re-enroll until you no longer meet the eligibility criteria. If you are a potential winner (subject to verification), you’ll be notified by mail and/or email within two weeks of the drawing date. Eligible students may only win one time. No purchase is required. See official rules at wellsfargo.com/collegeguidance for complete details and drawing dates.¹

Get helpful information

When you enroll in our CollegeSTEPS program, you will receive emails to help guide you through your current year in school. College students will receive emails with tips and tools for saving and budgeting, finding and managing student loans, and savvy money tips for college.
