

21st Annual Jump$tart Conference

Thursday, August 10, 2023, 8:00 am to 4:45 pm

DMACC Urban Campus, Des Moines, IA

Time
8:00 – 8:45	Registration (North Entrance)
8:45 – 9:00	Welcome - Julie Ntem, President of Iowa Jump$tart (Rooms 170 & 171)
9:00 – 10:00	Keynote Speaker - Adam Carroll (Rooms 170 & 171)
	Room 231	Room 170	Room 171
10:05 – 11:00	School Partnerships & In-School Banks - Kyle Osborne and Traci Drescher, TS Institute. Discover lessons learned from a 10-year journey of serving students, teachers and schools with economic and financial education. Learn about the beauty and challenges of school and business partnerships and how our in-school bank capstone programs have impacted the schools. Classroom, program and partnership best practices will be shared that work with different LMI (Low to Moderate Income) schools.	How to Fight Fraud - Sonya Sellmeyer, Iowa Insurance Division. Scammers don't care how old you are! Learn how to recognize the warning signs of scams to protect yourself and your students.	UNI's Financial Skills for Smart Living Offers FREE College Credit – Jennifer Anderson, UNI. UNI's Financial Skills for Smart Living is a free, comprehensive personal finance curriculum that offers students the option of earning three college credits for FREE. Learn more about how to incorporate this curriculum into your personal finance class. (NOTE: This is a mandatory session for teachers using the curriculum for the first time in 2023-24.)
11:05 – 12:00	NGPF Middle School: Engaging Learners with Financial Fun – Kevin Gartman, Montezuma High School. This session will explore 5 NGPF resources perfect for the middle school classroom, an entirely FREE curriculum. Participants will walk away with ideas for immediate implementation in the classroom.	Identifying Your Invisible Barrier to Unleash Your Full Money Potential - Dave Won, Budget Captain. Teachers across the U.S. face an invisible enemy: personal money stress. It's their top stressor, affecting their work & home life. In this presentation, the missing piece in personal finance talk will be addressed—the psychological side of money. By identifying barriers & taking practical steps, teachers can unleash their full money potential, reducing stress & empowering themselves for the benefit of their students.	Good Habits for Good Credit - Jaimie Miller and Ena Babic Barnes, Iowa Credit Union Foundation. Our credit worthiness has a lasting impact on our well-being. Learn how to help your students build credit, establish good habits, and avoid the pitfalls of bad credit.
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch/Exhibits - Update from Iowa Department of Education - Stefanie Wager (Atrium)

	Room 231	Room 170	Room 171
1:05 – 2:00	EVERFI Middle and High School: Technology’s Role in Deeper Learning – Collin Lane, EverFi. It’s not JUST about the device. Come explore how EVERFI’s digital and offline materials combine to connect with students. With over 14 financial literacy focused courses in Middle and High School you are bound to find something that you can use in your classroom tomorrow! EVERFI courses are no-cost to teachers and have recently been awarded the ISTE Seal of Alignment for Curriculum.	Teachers and the Student Loan Forgiveness Opportunities - Mike Johnson, Teacher Wealth. Every teacher with federal student loans needs to review their situation before the end of 2023. Opportunities are plentiful. Unfortunately, only 20% of those eligible for PSLF student loan forgiveness have taken advantage of it. There are other opportunities too, but teachers don’t know about them. Things are finally becoming clearer after months of court fights, proposed plans, executive orders, and waiting on the rules of the game. Learn what’s going on with student loans.	Investment Basics - Scott D. Eltjes, Investment Management & Wealth Management, Bankers Trust. Using good investment strategies early in life is essential to financial well-being later in life. Discover the investment topics that beginning investors need to know to meet their financial goals. You will learn about the various investment vehicles available, such as stocks, bonds, and mutual funds as well as risk assessment, diversification, asset allocation, and understanding investment returns.
2:05 – 3:00	Make Your Life Easier with ChatGPT (and other AI Tools) - Jennifer Anderson, UNI. Discover the fascinating possibilities of utilizing AI tools to enhance your teaching efficiency while fostering productivity and unleashing creativity within your classroom setting. Gain valuable insights into how AI can empower you to achieve more with less effort, ultimately revolutionizing the way you approach teaching and enhancing the overall learning experience for your students.	Paying for College: A 1-2-3 Approach - Heather Gaumer, Sallie Mae. Many students and families need help understanding how to pay for their college education. This session will provide an overview of college planning topics including college saving, filing the FAFSA, finding grants and scholarships, and borrowing responsibly (if at all!). Free tools and resources will also be reviewed to help bring this topic to life in the classroom.	Insurance 101 - Sonya Sellmeyer, Iowa Insurance Division. Learn the basics of insurance. Topics will include auto, home, life, and health information.
3:05 - 4:00	Money Psychology - Bailey Davis, Triangle. What are your unconscious biases that you learned from parents and peers? Money Script Psychology seeks to flush out those biases. As an adult we take those biases as absolutes and unfortunately, they can hinder our ability to accumulate wealth. We seek to understand how you feel about money to better serve you. Knowing how you feel about money will help us create better financial plans and coach you through market volatility.	Digital Payments & Apps for Personal Finance - Brett Olsen, Finance Department Head of Finance, University of Northern Iowa. The days of paying with cash or check are over. Learn about the new payment methods such as Apple Pay, Venmo, and Crypto as well as the apps your students are using (or should be using) for investing and budgeting as well as the pros and cons for each.	Planning for Your Own Retirement - Ryan Stuart, Iowa State University Extension and Outreach. Learn more about IPERS and retirement options for teachers as well as general retirement concepts to share with your students.
4:05 – 4:25	Networking Session - Collin Lane, Facilitator (Rooms 170 & 171)
4:25 - 4:30	Closing - Mike Johnson, Vice President of Jump$tart (Rooms 170 & 171)		